FAQ's - Meet the Mentors Harvard Faculty Club - August 20, 2013

Must I attend the entire program?

Yes. The program starts at 6 p.m. on August 19 and goes through 3 p.m. on March 20.

What if I cannot attend?

If you are unable to attend you forfeit your place and NFDA will select a person to take your spot. However, if you confirm your participation and do not show for the program you will be charged for your lodging.

Can my spouse or guest attend the program?

No. The only attendees are those selected through the random drawing of entrant names.

Can my spouse or guest attend the welcome reception/dinner?

Yes. Notify NFDA of your spouse's attendance to the reception in advance.

Can my spouse or guest attend the dinner?

Yes. Notify NFDA of your spouse's attendance to the dinner in advance. You will be billed for the cost of their dinner.

Will I be reimbursed for travel expenses?

No. As part of your acceptance of participation in the Meet the Mentors program you have been made aware that travel expenses will be your responsibility.

Is there a charge for the program?

No. Once you are at Meet the Mentors, the program is free including the reception, dinner, breakfast and lunch during Meet the Mentors.

What if I need to stay extra days at the hotel?

NFDA pays for one night's accommodations. Based on hotel availability, NFDA will make your reservations for your additional night(s), and you will be responsible for payment.

Will I receive continuing education credit?

CE may be available in some states. Contact your NFDA Member Services Representative at 1-800-228-6332.

Will I be rooming with someone at the Harvard Square Hotel?

No. You will have a private room.

What is the dress for the program?

Business attire is preferred.

Is there parking available at the Harvard Square Hotel?

Yes. At your expense. $20. per day. $35 overnight.

Is there parking available at the Harvard Faculty Club

No.

When is check-in and check-out for the Harvard Square Hotel?

Check-in 3:00 p.m.

Check-out Noon

What are my transportation choices from the airport?

Airport Shuttle: Available from Go Boston Shuttle. Please visit the website for rate information and reservations. You will need to book at least 24 hours in advance and when booking ender the code '0413' for a 10% NFDA discount. Check the Go Boston Shuttle website for pick up airport pick up locations.

Public Transportation: The subway is located just outside Logan Airport. Take the Silver Line (MBTA bus/subway) inbound to South Station. The Silver Line has a stop located outside of all terminals. The cost is $1.25. At South Station, get on the Red Line northbound toward Alewife Station. Take this train to the Harvard Square station.

Taxi: Taxi service is available from all airport terminal taxi stands. The cost is between $40 and $50. The ride is approximately 30 minutes, but varies based on taxi availability.

