Hosting a Cremation Certification Program Is Easy!

The Host School

- Receives special $165 student fee.
- Receives a reimbursement to offset the cost of program promotion for each attending non-student or non-faculty registrant as follows: up to 30 non-students/non-faculty, $50 each; for each additional non-student/non-faculty registrant over 30, $100 each.
- Provides training room for the day of the seminar including projector and screen (if the program is delivered in-person.)
- Assists with promotion of the event.

NFDA

- Covers all facilitator expenses.
- Executes comprehensive promotional campaign, including targeted email/fax efforts, program listing on the NFDA website and in the weekly NFDA Bulletin electronic newsletter, social media posts, printed materials, etc. in conjunction with promotional efforts by the program host. (If program is open to funeral service professionals outside the host school.)
- Ships training materials and copies of NFDA's Cremation Standards for Funeral Service Professionals to the site for each registrant.
- Provides registration and processing, CE approval application to state licensing board/s and post-event CE processing as required, 7-hour presentation, test processing, and certification benefits.

For more information, contact Tim Copeland at tim.copeland@nfda.org or 262-789-1880

The NFDA Cremation Certification seminar includes review of the NFDA textbook, Cremation Standards for Funeral Service Professionals, PPT overview, video, interactive discussions led by the facilitator, and break-out groups to help candidates prepare for the certification test.

The certification test is taken online by candidates. A link to the seminar test is provided to each candidate after full attendance is verified. Candidates have 10 business days from the seminar date to complete tests online; results are reported by NFDA as pass/fail only. Minimum passing score: 70%.

This Cremation Certification Program is designed to promote the highest levels of professionalism, compliance, and ethical service to families that choose cremation.
